Timothy “Kyle” Watts Joins AgriLand as Credit Analyst

Tyler, Texas – AgriLand Farm Credit Services is pleased to welcome Kyle Watts to its Tyler corporate office. Watts will serve as the cooperative lender’s credit analyst, where he will examine large, complex credit relationships.

A native of Lawrenceville, Georgia, Watts holds a master’s degree in agricultural and applied economics from the University of Georgia.

“AgriLand is pleased to welcome Kyle to our staff,” said AgriLand Farm Credit Vice President of Credit Jake Aragon. “His background in agriculture and economics make him an asset to our team.”

Established in 1933, AgriLand Farm Credit is a customer-owned lending cooperative that finances agricultural operations, rural recreational property, agribusiness and other rural real estate. It is headquartered in Tyler, Texas, and has lending offices in Athens, Beaumont, Bonham, Clarksville, Fairfield, Gainesville, Nacogdoches, New Waverly, Paris, Sulphur Springs and Tyler. AgriLand is part of the nationwide Farm Credit System.
