12th Annual Marsha Martin Scholarship Program

AgriLand Farm Credit established an agricultural scholarship program in honor of Marsha Pyle Martin, a Paris, Texas native, who served as chairman and chief executive officer of the Farm Credit Administration until her death on January 9, 2000 from cancer. Marsha was additionally recognized as the first woman senior executive in the Farm Credit System, serving as vice president of the Farm Credit Bank of Texas, and the first woman to serve as director of the Farm Credit System Insurance Corporation. A lifelong advocate for farmers, ranchers and rural America, Martin spent more than 30 years working in agriculture and agricultural finance. "Marsha was a proud East Texan and a great supporter of rural youth and agriculture," said Roger Brist, AgriLand Farm Credit chief executive officer. "We are pleased to continue her legacy by offering scholarships in Marsha's name to our future agricultural leaders."

AgriLand Farm Credit awarded its' first scholarship in 2000 and has awarded over $70,500 in scholarship monies in Marsha's honor.
